7 New York-based artist Jennifer Schinzing's fondness for birds shines through in her handmade glass ornaments. They come in a range of colours, but these amber and apricot versions are particularly lustrous. £74 each (jenniferschinzing.com).
8 Patterns of interlacing leaves, flowers and curls adorn Dutch designer Marcel Wanders' ornate 'Garden of Eden' silverware for Christofle. If ever there was a reason to set the dining table à la française, with the backs of the cutlery facing up, this is it. From £50 for a fork, Harrods (harrods.com; christofle.com).
9 We don't often include fashion on our Wish List but we're making an exception for this tan 'Burton' satchel, £190. Made from Italian bridle leather by new Brit accessory brand St Leonards, it's the perfect size for stashing your iPad! (stleonardsonline.com).

10 The stitching detail on this leather 'Ibisco' underplate conjures up images of old travel trunks. It's part of the 'Saturno' range by Promemoria, which includes a table mat, plates and coasters. From £492 (promemoria.com).
11 Don't stuff the cork back in the top of that half-finished bottle of wine – instead, keep it fresh and stylish with one of these 'TipTop' crystal stoppers by Thomas Bastide for Baccarat. £86 each (baccarat.fr) td
